

Dear incoming 5th grade students,

This summer we want you to take a journey to Camp Green Lake. There is no lake at Camp Green Lake, but there are an awful lot of holes. You will meet a character named Stanley Yelnates. Stanley is under a curse. A curse that began with his no-good-dirty-rotten-pig-stealing-great-great-grandfather and has since followed generations of Yelnats. Now Stanley has been unjustly sent to a boy's detention center, Camp Green Lake, where the boys build character by spending all day every day digging holes exactly five feet wide and five feet deep. It doesn't take long for Stanley to realize there's more than character improvement going on at Camp Green Lake. The boys are digging holes because the warden is looking for something. But what could be buried under a dried-up lake?

Students will need to be prepared to take an A.R. test on this book by Friday, August 16th. This test will count as a test grade in the grade book.

This book can be purchased through any major book store, Amazon, or can even be checked out at our local library. If you have any questions please feel free to reach out.

- Beth Guedon
bethguedon@adamschristian.org